I AM ELEVEN

Sunday, 13 November, 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Chester County Library and District Center
450 Exton Square Parkway, Exton, Pennsylvania 19341

Do you remember when you were eleven years old? Do you wonder what it's like to be a kid in other parts of the world? Bring your family and friends to this free screening and discussion of I Am Eleven, an award-winning film (and New York Times Critics' Pick)!

I Am Eleven explores the lives and thoughts of children from fifteen countries, weaving together deeply personal and at times hilarious snapshots of what it means to be at this transitional age. In this insightful, funny, and moving documentary portrait of childhood, young minds provide us with a powerful insight into the future of our world.

This event is cosponsored by the Chester County Library and by the Brandywine Valley chapter of CISV, a worldwide, nonreligious, nonpolitical, nonprofit organization that enables participants age 11+ to build global friendships through local chapter meetings and international and domestic camps.
